Girls ASPIRE Leadership Program - Summer 2024 Registration Form

Program Description

The Girls ASPIRE Leadership Program is a summer leadership program for twenty current 6th graders. The 6th grade program focuses on “What it Means to be a Girl” and “Friendships.” Activities will focus on:

- being your own friend first
- identifying positive qualities about yourself and your leadership skills
- celebrating the commonalities and differences among the girls in the group
- identify components of healthy relationships and friendship characteristics, as well as how to address conflict
- honoring personal strengths and empowering one another

The 6th graders who participate in the summer of 2024 will be invited back for the summers of their 7th and 8th grade year for a week-long experience, as well as Saturday sessions during the academic year.

Requirements for Program Consideration:

- Current 6th grade student (2023-2024 school year)
- Complete attached registration form including school and community service activities and responses to 2 short answer questions
- Applicants must commit to participating the entire week of the program; June 24-28, 2024.
